2018 SLO JAMS Sauvignon Blanc product-timed-pdf - Horse Heaven Hills, Washington State - Single-Vineyard Show Stopper!!

Why We're Drinking It

We could probably talk about our obsession with Slo Down Wines for HOURS! Brandon Allen, you devil! They're responsible for producing seriously good wine with hilarious names, labels, and stories. They don't take themselves too seriously, so much that, on every bottle Brandon puts his personal cell phone number on it in case you have any questions!

The 2018 Slo Jams is their Sauvignon Blanc & Marsanne (90% and 10%, respectively) blend sourced from the Horse Heaven Hills AVA in Columbia Valley, Washington. Lemongrass, pineapple, and kiwi throw themselves seamlessly on the palate, and when combined with the prolonged acidity, make for a stellar sipper.

Tasting Notes

SLO JAMS opens with aromas of key lime and lemon grass followed by light and fresh flavors of cut pineapple, ripe oroblanco grapefruit and stone fruit. Cue up some old tracks and drink up!

The Story to Know

'Seriously good wine that doesn't take itself too seriously.' That's SLO Down Wines' motto and we absolutley agree. It started with 93 cases and a dream. Almost a decade later, they're still shaking things up and blurring the line between what is and isn't socially acceptable.
