2016 Domaine Ferrer Ribière F product-timed-pdf - Côtes Catalanes | Languedoc

Why We're Drinking It

The domaine is owned by two partners, Denis Ferrer who takes care of the vines, and Bruno Ribiere, who makes the wines and in doing so, endeavors to express the soils and vines his partner has tended. The men try to work in an organic and biodynamic way.

This blend of 50% Carignan & 50% Grenache is EVERYTHING! Spice, earth, acid, and fruit merge together to form a perfect weeknight staple

The Story to Know

From the winery:

Since the creation of the domain in 1993, we work our parcels and vines naturally. First to restore the ground before planting new vines, then to preserve the heritage of nature in the raw state, such as old vines over 130 years old, which we are the guardians of.

To demonstrate our commitment as organic wine makers, we are certified by Ecocert since 2007. We believe that the practices of agriculture, following organic and biodynamic precepts, is the only sustainable way to look after our vines.

Our main worry is to fertilize and maintain them to obtain the finest grapes, year after year, while preserving them from chemical influence.
